Dear Parent/Carer

Important Information about support before GCSE Drama Examination

I am writing to inform you that Fred has completed 60% of the GCSE Drama course and he now has one very important examination in May 2015, worth 40% toward the final GCSE grade. Fred will be performing a final piece to a visiting examiner or will be presenting a Production skill. As well as lesson time, students are strongly encouraged to attend After-School Enrichment sessions every Thursday and Friday from 2.30pm-3.30pm. The key to success is of course rehearse, rehearse, rehearse!

May I please ask you to encourage Fred to attend these sessions? I would also greatly appreciate you actively supporting Fred with learning his lines. It is essential that the learning of lines takes place in Fred's own time and that in lesson times he can rehearse the scenes free from the confines of 'reading from a script'. You will be an invaluable support by saying the lines of other characters by asking and prompting Fred to recount his own lines. You will also appreciate Fred is part of a group of students working together to achieve the highest grades, and the success of others depends on him too.

I will notify you nearer the time when we are given an examination date so that you can put it in your diary. I look forward to seeing you in person when the students perform their plays on an evening that promises to be a celebration and platform that will reveal how fantastic and talented Fred is!

Yours sincerely

Matthew Coe
Head of Drama
